Halloween

Monday, October 31st, students will be celebrating Halloween. Students are to come to school dressed in their costume. There will be a Halloween parade in the parking lot at eight o'clock. Please don't be late, so that all children will be able to participate in the parade. There will be Student Council sponsored activities in the afternoon. Prizes will be given for the best costume from each class. Children may change into their school uniform after the parade if they choose to.

Trunk or Treat

Louisville High School in Woodland Hills will be hosting a Halloween event for grades TK, Kinder, first and second grades, on Friday, October 28th, 4:00 pm until 6:00 pm.. There will be a bounce house and pumpkin painting. The event is free.

School Event Coordinators

If you have had an event this year and had school family volunteers, please forward a copy of your volunteer sign-in forms to the school office, attn: SBS Tuition Office.

NO SCHOOL

There will be no school on Friday, Dec. 2nd, as teachers will be attending a retreat.

Library Notes

With encouragement of an interest in reading as our ongoing SBS ministry, look for upcoming hallway book displays of books regarding Halloween and the Day of the Dead. Along with this thematic emphasis, another set of books new to our library collection will be on display and available for borrowing. These come from a wonderful recent family donation and through purchases made possible by your Book Fair cash donations. Finally, we close with a thankful reminder for borrowers to please return overdo books, so that others may enjoy them.

Jr. High Dance

Our first Jr. High Dance, for seventh and eighth grade students, will be Friday, October 28th, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. All students must have a signed permission slip to attend the dance. Sodas and bottles of water will be sold for fifty cents and snacks will be provided.
