Library Notes

As we begin a new month remembering those who have come before, we look forward to an active period of learning and living, for which we will give thanks at month's end. At this time, though, I pivot to requesting remembrance of library books overdo and their return. While we celebrate our students as readers, their formation as responsible individuals is aided through accountability. To that end, as always, your family support is both requested and appreciated in reminding our student borrowers to return their library books in a timely manner. And, I'll do my part with individual reminder notices.
