Library Notes

We take this time to voice a big “Thank You” for all who took a moment to visit the library during our Catholic Schools Week’s Open House. We are especially grateful for all who supported our ongoing efforts to purchase new books for our students. Most of all, we appreciate the continuing encouragement that SBS families and faculty show for students utilizing the resources of the library. This measure of commitment truly reflects recognition of the overall value of reading to one’s learning development. In this month of February look for books in our hallway display in honor of African American Heritage Month.
