Summer Reading

Did you know that research shows when children and their families read throughout the summer, fewer students experience a loss of skills while school is out? We encourage all families to keep their children reading through the summer as everyone enjoys the break. Although there is no formal summer reading assignment this year, there are several websites that offer reading fun and enrichment. The site <http://www.scholastic.com/parents> offers many great resources. Another great resource for all grades is: www.earlychildhoodeducationzone.com/best-online-reading-programs/. Here's to a great summer of reading!

Summer School & Day Camp

Just a reminder that summer school runs from Monday, June 18, until Friday, July 13. Registration is currently open; please read more information about classes being offered and about the dates for day camp with the information being emailed along with this flyer. This can also be found on the school website.

Summer Musical: Anything Goes!

This year's summer musical show is Anything Goes. It is open to grades 2 and up. The students have a great time every summer, and present the show the weekend of July 13, 14, and 15 with dinner and a live band. Simply enroll for the drama class as part of summer school. There will be extra rehearsals in addition to the Tuesday/Thursday class, (the drama students will be meeting every day) and a complete schedule will be given on the first day. Join us for a summer of fun and creativity!

Application and Financial Forms

If you know of anyone who needs applications for the 2018-19 school year, or financial information regarding tuition for next year, the forms can be found on the website, stbridgetofswedenschool.org.

New Administration

Questions regarding the tuition schedule and other inquiries will be addressed when the new administration is in place. Stay tuned for more details.
